EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Bradley Lytle on 11/9/04.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 6-7, 9-10, and 16-17, are canceled.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-5, 8, and 11-15 contain allowable subject matter over the prior art of record.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claimed invention is directed to an information processing method. The independent claims identify the feature of "associating the measured position information with the video information in accordance with degrees of difference between the first time information representing times of day at which the measured position information is obtained and the second time information representing times of day at which the video information is obtained". The closest prior art, Ota discloses a conventional apparatus and method for reproducing and managing images which are captured by a camera connected to a GPS unit, either singularly or in combination fails to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Art Unit: 2616

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Monma Kiyoshi discloses an apparatus for recording/reproducing the position information of a mobile object at the time of photographing surrounding from the mobile object.
